This is the standard volume of Plato owned by my philosophy buddies. It's too large to carry around with me and read on the go, but that's to be expected from a volume containing Plato's complete works. Many reviewers have mentioned the print being much too small. Measuring the letters on my copy, it looks like it's 9 pt font.

There is a lot of classic Melville here, ALMOST everything he ever wrote. But a set of his works cannot accurately and honestly call itself "complete" if it is missing a significant work; one such work in this instance is BILLY BUDD. For that dishonesty, I have rated an otherwise 5-star collection, one star lower.
